

K-Love is an important community service to me and my family. Without it we would not be able to listen to the good Christian programs my family needs to hear. It is in the public interest to continue K-Love as a healthy alternative to popular music and entertainers.